

Narragansett Property Management

Be Proactive, Not Reactive

narrproperty@gmail.com

401.783.1155

Dear Summer Traveler,

We are looking forward to having you in the Narragansett area this summer!

Here are some notes and answers to questions you will have as your time in the area approaches. I

- If you have an outstanding balance, please contact us and come to our home office on Saturday prior to move in to obtain your key and pay the balance. Our home office is at 6 Foster Lane, Narragansett, RI 02882
- Please contact us if you do not know your address and have any last minute questions
- Check-In time is 3PM; Check out is 10AM promptly!
- You will find your house unlocked and keys with the welcome book on your table or counter
- For those with keyless entries, a separate email with the keyless code will be sent to you
- The Wi-Fi password is found on the bottom of the router: It's usually a WPA # or PassKey # or sometimes an owner will post it (see the photo below for what the password might look like on the bottom of the router - in this case it's the WPA2Key #
- Patio Umbrellas are victims of our breezy area. Please be sure to put it down after daily use
- Starter paper/soap supplies will be provided, but not a week's worth
- Please let us know if there are housekeeping issues that need attention right away and we will come back and rectify: 401.783.1155 x 0
- If there is a house emergency, please call 911 first, then contact us at 401.783.1155 x1
- We ask that you don't overstock the fridge with large amounts of warm items forcing the residential fridge to not work efficiently
- Sheets and towels are not provided with the house, unless you've made alternate plans
- Take note of the trash/recycling dates/policies at the house. They're noted on the welcome letter
- At the end of your stay, please put out your trash the early to catch the trash pickup. Recycling must be brought to the curb, regular trash will be picked up in the yard.
- Your house must be left unlocked upon your departure so the cleaners can get in
- Be sure to have a wonderful & relaxing time!

Safe Travels,
Narragansett Property Management